Honesty in Academic Work

You should pay attention to achieving honesty in all your academic work, for example, plagiarism. Plagiarism is an act of using the work of others (in particular the writing of others) as your own. The most obvious and substantial type of plagiarism is copying whole articles, sections, paragraphs or whole sentences from other publications without acknowledgement. This is clearly unacceptable. However, even the use of a few words or paraphrasing (without actually copying any words at all) may constitute plagiarism if the source is not acknowledged. Students sometimes unintentionally plagiarize because they are not aware of the very stringent rules that apply. If material is taken from a source, there shall be proper quotes and acknowledgements. You should refer to “Honesty in Academic Work” in Undergraduate Student Handbook or the CUHK website: <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty>

You may make full use of the upcoming four years to experience most or all of them. The following resources and programmes support those opportunities.

You are reminded that all student learning activities organised by CUHK Business School are posted in the Student Portal @ <https://mycuhk.sharepoint.com/sites/faculty.BA.UGO>.

Integration and Leadership

During the academic year, there are numerous opportunities for you to enrich your profile, widen your exposure and polish your soft skills through personal development workshops organised by UGO.

Case Competitions

Academic Cup organised by UGO is an annual event held in late September every year. This is a local, internal case competition which gives you opportunities to apply the business knowledge into business challenges. Student participants will form a team, present their ideas and solutions to the judges. Winning teams of business students from the Academic Cup may have opportunity to receive trainings and represent CUHK Business School to participate in overseas case competitions. UGO also closely collaborates with Case Competition Team (CCT), a student-led initiative for international case competitions.

International case competitions are a good platform where our students can network with business students of other international business schools, enhancing one's analytical, problem-solving and presentation skills in a real business situation.

Other Activities

- UG Get Together: a gathering on one Friday for you to network with other students, faculty and staff.
- Cultural Activities: during the academic year, UGO/student associations organise different activities such as International Food Fair, One-day excursion and etc.
- Student Organizations and Orientation Programmes: CUHK Business School has its own undergraduate student societies. By joining a society especially in your first year at CUHK, you can work closely with other students both socially and professionally.

CSR & Community Services

CUHK Business School offers volunteer opportunities for students, alumni, faculty and staff to get involved with the community and the School. One of the service projects UGO organises is a service trip in Shaoguan. Student volunteers can freely design learning materials and teach primary students English.

CSR Projects and Trips

CSR is a continuing commitment by a business to behave ethically and improve the quality of life of the local community, society and environment at large. It is also a commitment by a company to operate in an economically, socially and environmentally sustainable manner while balancing the interests of diverse stakeholders. You are encouraged to acquire business and practical knowledge in areas of corporate governance, stakeholder engagement, environment management, labor practice, supply chain management, and community involvement to enhance your understanding of CSR.

Career Development

Career and Personal Development Workshops

UGO organises a series of career development workshops and industry highlights throughout the academic year. Senior executives from corporations are invited to share with students the “insider’s view” of different professions. Career development workshops cover topics including but not limited to career planning, CV writing, job interview skills, workplace communication skills and networking skills.

Internships

CUHK Business School coordinates with recruiters of various business sectors to offer valuable internship opportunities for business students. Through an internship, you can apply your knowledge learned in the classroom to the real business world, gain practical work experience from the business community, understand the actual business operations and also enhance your personal skills in the workplace.

Summer Internship Programme

- Work engagement during summer holiday (usually from June to August)

Semester Internship Programme

- Full-time Internship: working as full-time intern for one or two terms with approved suspension of studies

Undergraduate Mentorship Programme

CUHK Business School co-organises with the CUBBA Alumni Association to offer the “Undergraduate Mentorship Programme” for business students. Business leaders who graduated from CUHK Business School and are serving a wide range of sectors, are invited to serve as mentors, of which they will share their precious experience with current students and give them advice on their career and personal development.

You can register to be a mentee in September every year. You will be paired up with alumni who are working in the business sector that you are interested in. Currently, there are over 90 mentors and 150 mentees participating in the programme. Mentees are encouraged to meet with their mentors on a regular basis.

E-Learning Platform

“Soft Skills Mentor” is an e-Learning platform that aims at complementing the business knowledge acquired by students in the classroom to facilitate you to be further equipped with the necessary “soft” skills in various areas such as problem-solving, communication and interpersonal skills, which in turn would better prepare you to meet the needs of the volatile and highly competitive business environment.
