BBA in Global Business Studies

Global Business Studies (GBS)

From issues of European integration to Asian commerce and global venturing, the modern business landscape is increasingly multifaceted and international. It is in spirit that GBS, internationally known as Global Learning Opportunities in Business Education (GLOBE), pioneered the region's first tri-continental programme in collaboration with Copenhagen Business School (CBS) and The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC).

The GBS curriculum features a selection of cutting-edge business courses from three of the world's top international business schools. Courses focus on international management issues, case studies and in-depth investigations into today's global business climate, integrating the expertise of each school with tailored, regionally-focused syllabuses, hands-on projects, and study trips across three continents.

Over the course of 18 months, you and your GLOBE cohort — students from CUHK, CBS and UNC — will study together in each of the three countries for three semesters. Living and working with your global counterparts allows genuine cultural immersion and the natural development of skills necessary to adapt in today's dynamic business environment.

Your lasting bonding with GLOBE classmates will foster connections across our global alumni network. This brings you the lifetime benefit of having a strong pool of professional contacts to support your career and personal pursuits.

“GBS endeavours to shepherd the next generation of global leadership with distinctive international business expertise and the desire to create meaningful change around the world.”

UNC, USA

CBS, Denmark

UNC

UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School

The Kenan-Flagler Business School of UNC is one of the world's most respected business schools, offering a rich portfolio of programmes that prepares business leaders to manage successfully in a global environment. In 2013, Bloomberg Businessweek ranked UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School second for "Top Undergraduate Business Schools for International Business".

CBS

Copenhagen Business School

Established in 1917, CBS is one of the largest business schools in Northern Europe. It offers a comprehensive range of university level degrees in business economics. In 2014, CBS was ranked No.1 in the world by Eduniversal, based on Dean recommendation rate, ahead of London Business School and Harvard Business School.

CUHK

CUHK Business School

As the first business school in Hong Kong, CUHK Business School is one of the leading business schools in Asia, known for its world-class programmes, faculty and facilities. In 2011, CUHK was ranked No.1 worldwide for international business research based on publication counts in the Journal of the International Business Studies (JIBS) by the University of Texas-Dallas.

Your Development

Through the internationally-oriented curriculum and unique tri-continental learning experience, GBS graduates learn the skills to become influential players in the global community.

Upon graduation, you can expect to be able to work confidently across borders and gain the following valuable assets:

Distinct business acumen

Cultural fluency

Extensive global alumni network

An in-depth understanding of business practices in tri-continents

An entrepreneurial mindset

Tri-continental Cohort Exchange

International exposure, cultural awareness and strong cosmopolitan communication skills are essential tools for leadership in the 21st century. What makes GBS distinct from other programmes' exchange opportunities is its cohort exchange system. GLOBE students have the unique privilege of achieving true cultural immersion in three continents during the 18-month GLOBE journey. You will learn how to cooperate with promising students from diverse cultural backgrounds through engagement in class discussions, projects and activities. Truly the convergence of 54 brilliant minds creates a platform for exchange of ideas, innovations and aspirations.

Study Trips

As part of the GLOBE Programme, you will participate in organised trips across Asia, the United States or Europe. Over the past few years, GLOBE students have taken study trips to developed and emerging markets including Belgium, Chicago, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand. Through interactive executive briefings with founders, CEOs and other senior executives at selected corporations, these excursions allow you to witness how industries from healthcare, energy and consumer goods to banking, financial consulting, steel and aviation operate in different economies, and how cultural differences influence business operations.

Orientation Trip

You will begin your GBS journey with a regional orientation trip, organised every August to familiarise first-year students with the programme and with one another. Past orientation trip destinations have included Nagoya, Osaka, Tokyo and Seoul.

Curriculum

GBS students are exposed to top faculty members at each of the three universities in the GLOBE Programme and each business school is positioned in the major economic and cultural hub of Asia, North America and Europe respectively. Our structured yet novel curriculum, with tailored courses on regional and global business environment, lets you explore subjects aligned with your interests and potential career paths, offering an abundance of out-of-classroom learning opportunities like group projects, case studies and complementary study trips.

Case Analysis Training

Take part in real-life business cases to develop your problem-solving and presentation skills through our organised training sessions. These sessions streamline your business knowledge and soft skills while challenging you to successfully apply them in simulated professional environments. As a result of our training, GBS students are known for achieving outstanding results in local and international business case competitions.

Team Effectiveness Workshop

In business, hard knowledge is only one part of your success. Essential soft skills are the true test of a leader who can influence and mobilise diverse, international teams. Hone your teamwork, leadership, communication and problem-solving skills in the Team Effectiveness Workshop, a programme with team-building challenges and physical activities designed to boost your leadership potential as well as management soft skills. The relevant knowledge and attitude can be transferable to the workplace. Through the reflection and sharing sessions, you and your teammates will better understand your strengths, weaknesses and potential blind spots, gaining the confidence to become effective team players and charismatic leaders.

Mentorship Programme

In your first year, you will be paired with a fellow senior student as well as a member of our alumni community as your mentors. These lifelong friendships are one of the programme's greatest assets, as mentors who have gone through the same GLOBE journey and accumulated ample industry experience will guide and support you for the road ahead — both study and future career, often well after graduation.

A multitude of enrichment activities to equip students with the critical knowledge, skills, mindsets, and professional networks.

Student Life

GBS Ignite (GBSI)

GBSI, a GBS student-led community, promotes student welfare with an ethos of giving back to the community. The four functional teams within GBSI — Careers & Personal Development, Product Development, Publication & Communications and Recreational Activities — organise career sharing sessions, design GBS-branded products, produce publications and host a variety of social events where students can mingle and have fun. This not only fosters the intra- and inter-cohort relationships within the GBS family, but also encourages students to give back and serve the others after benefitting from the seniors' generous sharing.

GLOBE Alumni

The GLOBE Alumni organisation is run by GLOBE scholars and while formally independent from GLOBE, seeks to further the programme's mission of stimulating a dynamic, international, and collaborative business environment. GLOBE Alumni facilitates gatherings, maintains an online platform for communication, and promotes relationships with corporations.

The Regional Boards are responsible for organising activities in their respective regions whereas the Global Executive Committee takes charge of the global coordination of GLOBE Alumni strategies and activities. This ensures that both local and global alumni relationships are robust and well maintained.

“Through various alumni engagement opportunities, students can develop connections across the uniquely global alumni network.”

GLOBE Stories

The experience provided by GLOBE is truly unmatched. Through the program, I got an opportunity to study with top students not only from Hong Kong, but also Europe and the U.S.A. As part of the program, I have gained a chance to not just study about business, but also see them up-close and talk to some of the top business leaders in the world. The scope of GLOBE goes even beyond business to other aspects. GLOBE is not just about the best education in business, but also about the network, and most importantly, friends for a lifetime.

Radhika NARANG
Class of 2019

I believe it is the practicality and comprehensiveness of the GBS curriculum making it stand out from all other business programmes. The 1.5-year cohort exchange opportunities, in which students from USA, Denmark and Hong Kong brings together innovative ideas and learn from various cultures.

The Programme emphasizes on critical thinking with a global perspective, and a constant awareness of the turbulence on the international stage. GBS is more than resourceful to provide us with an extensive alumni network, where we get in-depth and up-to-date business insights from competitive insiders. Apart from school courses, I am actualizing my career aspiration through internships in the banking industry, exploring further the way how the business world works.
