Overview

The BBA in Professional Accountancy (PACC) Programme is the first accounting degree programme offered in Hong Kong and the first in Asia to be accredited by both the AACSB International and The Federation of Schools of Accountancy. Reaching well beyond a standard accounting education, PACC focuses on cultivating your whole person development. Our Global Accounting (GA), Global Tax and Governance (GTG), Finance for Accountants (FA) and Accounting Analytics (AA) streams, equip you with the knowledge, leadership skills and values you need to adapt to the industry's changing demands.

A remarkable component of the PACC Programme is the vast array of experiential learning opportunities we offer. Internships, exchanges, career workshops, study trips and case competitions are thoughtfully designed to deepen your knowledge and understanding of the industry. Whether you aspire to seek out new countries and cultures or connect with local start-ups in Hong Kong and the Greater Bay Area, you will find no shortage of possibilities to transform yourself as well as the business environment and community around you.

All PACC students are eligible to apply for the Qualification Programme (QP) of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (HKICPA) and other professional examinations. Our students have an outstanding performance record in both professional examinations and case analysis competitions, making them the most preferred accounting graduates by recruiters from international accounting firms and other businesses.

Curriculum

The PACC Programme strives to go above and beyond offering a chance for you to specialise in accounting or related field. Our curriculum is designed to nurture well-rounded and dynamic business professionals with the ability to command the marketplace long into the future. You will not only study extensively on accounting subjects but also a number of business courses which are related to accounting.

Approximately 30% of PACC students study a minor. We offer many minor options to help you broaden your scope of studies and bring a new perspective to your major work.

Diverse Choice of Streams

Upon the curriculum of the PACC Programme, students can specialise in various streams to shape themselves into a future business professional with global mind-set.

Experiential Learning

Internships

Our students have successfully completed internships with international accounting firms, various banking and financial institutions and in the public sector. Most PACC students acquire internship experience prior to their final year of study, greatly improving their competitiveness in the job market.

Connect with the world

PACC proudly maintains exchange partnerships with more than 250 prestigious universities around the world. Each year, approximately two-thirds of our students go on at least one overseas exchange. We also regularly organise study trips in collaboration with prestigious overseas universities. On a study trip you will have the chance to visit local companies, attend engaging lectures and get out to explore new cities, opening your mind to new ways of thinking and doing business.

Enrichment activities

PACC organises a range of activities to enhance students' professional knowledge and understanding of the industry. Throughout the year we host professional seminars, career talks, company visits and students advising tea receptions.

Student Sharing

Dabby Ip
(Year 4)

“PACC has given me more than the specialised technical knowledge in accounting. Financial numbers aside, we analyse an organisation’s structure, processes, and controls to gain a “helicopter view”. This develops my creative thinking and sharpens my analytical and problem-solving skills which help justify my innovative ideas in various consulting projects.”
